Dear Mr. Iocovozzi,

The Bankruptcy Court Clerk's Office does not report information to the credit reporting agencies, nor can we direct them to modify, delete or change the information contained in a credit report. If you have concerns about the accuracy of credit report information, you can file a dispute directly with the individual credit reporting agencies.

Our offices are open 9:00 am to 4:00 pm Monday through Friday, except legal holidays. You are welcome to visit, review case files, print documents, and ask any procedural questions. If you are having legal difficulties, you may want to speak with an attorney.

If you have procedural questions, or would like to request a formal search of records, please call me directly at 518-257-1632.

Sincerely,

Edward DiDonna
Operations Supervisor, Albany New York

Dear Gentlemen

Can you please tell me if the New York State bankruptcy reports directly to any of the three credit bureaus.

Respectfully,

Vincent D. Iocovozzi
